

World Explorer Writing Prompts

Postcard Prompts

- Write a postcard from the top of the Eiffel Tower.
- Send a note home after exploring the Amazon rainforest.
- Describe the Northern Lights from your snowy tent in Norway.
- Write to a friend about the strangest food you've tried abroad.

Create a Country

- Invent a country. What's its name, flag, and capital city?
- Describe the weather, landforms, and landmarks.
- What traditions or holidays do people celebrate there?
- Create a national animal, dish, or dance – then describe it.

Map Based Magic

- Draw a map of a made-up island. Label at least 3 places and tell what happens there.
- Write about a dangerous journey across mountains, rivers, and deserts.
- You find a mysterious treasure map. What do you discover when you follow it?

Adventure Sparks

- You woke up on a boat headed to Antarctica. What now?
- You're hiking in the Himalayas and spot something strange in the snow...
- You're invited to a world-famous festival in Japan. What do you see, eat, and wear?
- A letter arrives from someone on the other side of the world. What does it say?

Cultural Curiosity

- Describe a day in the life of a child living in Kenya, Iceland, or Peru.
- Interview an explorer who just returned from the jungle.
- Write a recipe from another culture, including how it's served and who enjoys it.
- Imagine you're visiting a market in Morocco. What do you hear, smell, and buy?

Bonus Activities

-  Draw your invented country's flag
-  Match 5 world landmarks with short story ideas
-  Pack your explorer's bag: What do you bring for a trip around the world?
