

IMAGINATION BINGO

Winter Edition

Would you rather top your hot chocolate with marshmallows or crushed peppermint?

 STORY STARTER
Halfway down the hill, we realized the sled had a mind of its own.

Interview a family member about their favorite winter memory.

Describe winter from an animal's point of view.

List five things you would need to survive a blizzard.

List your favorite winter foods and describe your favorite.

 INVENT-A-TITLE
The Penguin Who Hated Winter

 STORY STARTER
The scarf felt warm, too warm.

List winter smells and explain why one matters to you.

 INVENT-A-TITLE
The Marshmallow

How does winter help you appreciate other seasons?

Show cold without using the word cold.

Write anything you want—as long as it makes you smile.

Would you rather explore the Arctic or explore the Jungle?

Design a sled, ski, or skate that works differently than any other.

Design a winter drink inspired by an animal (for example, what would a fox or polar bear drink?).

Would you rather spend the night in an igloo or a treehouse in winter?

Write something by candlelight.

 STORY STARTER
No one expected the moose to be such a graceful skier.

 INVENT-A-TITLE
The Snowshoe Hare Who Wanted Shoes

Bake something together, then write a description convincing someone else to try it.

Would you rather be snowed in with friends or alone with a good book?

 INVENT-A-TITLE
The Frozen Fox

Who is this? What's his or her story?

 STORY STARTER
The dog was supposed to pull the sled, not ride it.

